

CLF's Corporate Sponsorship Form!

Get you, your company and your employees involved in one of four great ways:

-Become a Board of Trustees Member:

Become part of a great community of business and community leaders by becoming a Board of Trustees member. Bill Curtis, President & CEO of Curtco & the Robb Report Magazine, heads this exclusive board. Contact us to learn more about this extraordinary opportunity!

-Holiday Event Sponsorship: Fund Holiday Activities for one of our unique Holiday Parties. We rent the venue, get everything in order. Your employees are invited to attend and volunteer, your company purchases the gifts, and donates funds for facility rental, food and entertainment fees. This is always an extraordinary day, and an amazing way for co-workers to bond, do something great over the Holidays, all the while helping children truly in need of some awesome Holiday fun.

-Fundraising Event Sponsorship: This is an incredible way to get great exposure for your product or company. The CLF is always looking for like-minded companies to sponsor our annual luncheon and dinner events. We are especially looking for environmentally and globally aware establishments, as our friends, like ourselves, shop and live to protect the world in which we live. We always host events in wonderful venues, and always have quality entertainment and festivities.

-Adopt-A-Family!- Sponsor a family in the range of $2500 to $5000, and move them from a homeless shelter into a new apartment! By doing this, your company will be providing first, last and deposit fees, furniture, move-in costs, and additional expenses for one year.
